Instructions to Complete the Designation of Beneficiary Form

Please use only black ink to complete the form.

If you make a mistake in completing the form, line out the erroneous information, add the correct information and initial the correction. The printed material on the form should not be deleted or altered in any way.

In all cases, the relationship of the beneficiary and the beneficiary's social security number should be included with the beneficiary designations.

If a beneficiary is to be contingent, be sure to check the appropriate box. A Contingent Beneficiary will receive benefits only if the Primary Beneficiary(ies) does not survive the insured. If naming more than one Contingent Beneficiary at 100% each, please indicate 1st contingent, 2nd contingent, 3rd contingent, etc.

If a married woman is named beneficiary, her full legal name should be shown. For example: Mary J. Smith, not Mrs. John J. Smith. Likewise, if this form is to be signed by a married woman, she should sign her full legal name.

If a minor child is named beneficiary, the date of birth along with the child's social security number must be given.

Conditions - When you sign the form you are agreeing to these conditions:

Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Designation of Beneficiary form, if any named beneficiary predeceases you, the life proceeds shall be payable equally to the remaining named beneficiary or beneficiaries. If no named beneficiary survives you, any sum becoming payable under said Group Policy(ies) by reason of your death shall be payable as prescribed in said Group Policy(ies).

If this Designation of Beneficiary provides for payment to a trustee under a trust agreement, Aetna Life Insurance Company shall not be obliged to inquire into the terms of the trust agreement and shall not be chargeable with knowledge of the terms thereof. Payment to and receipt by the trustee shall fully discharge all liability of said Insurance Company to the extent of such payment.

If you live in one of the following community property states - Arizona, California, Idaho, Louisiana, Nevada, New Mexico, Texas, Washington, or Wisconsin - your spouse may have a legal claim for a portion of the life insurance benefit under state law. If you name someone other than your spouse as beneficiary, payment of the death benefit may be delayed until your spouse's claim is resolved. If you make the beneficiary someone other than your spouse, it may be a good idea to complete the spousal consent section, which allows the spouse to waive his or her rights to any community property interest in the benefit.

When two or more beneficiaries are named, and they are not to share the benefits equally, enter the percentage each beneficiary is to receive on the form in the space provided. Dollars and cents should not be specified. When added together, the sum of the percentages going to the two or more named beneficiaries must total 100%.

If a trustee is named beneficiary, show the exact name of the trust, date of the trust agreement, and the name and address of the trustee.

For example: The John J. Smith Revocable Life Insurance Trust, dated January 1, 1994. John Smith, Trustee, 123 Apple Lane, Hartford, CT 06006.
